

Have you chosen the right subjects to study? Are you in the right career?

Are you in the best role?

- Did you choose your career because you had the right academic qualifications?
- Do you know what else you have to offer (your Superpowers)?
- Do you know what you are unlikely to enjoy or do well? (your Kryptonites)?
- Do you know which roles you are best fitted for? Would you like to find out by trial and error? or would you like a better way?

The Plumtrees Superpowers Analysis is a proven, powerful approach used to develop the careers of 900+ senior executives. It will help you to know yourself better and to understand the careers and roles in which you can thrive. It will also surprise you with its accuracy and the new and subtle insights that it provides!

“The careers guidance we had at school was so generic and felt impersonal and computer generated. Plumtrees Superpowers Analysis said... that with these Superpowers, skills and preferences that I would be better suited to an advocacy role, than an office role.”

(Charlotte, 2nd Year, History student who was originally planning to be a solicitor but is now an aspiring barrister or advocate for a charity.)

To prove the value of the Plumtrees Superpowers Analysis to a younger market, we need to gather evidence.

We are offering FREE Plumtrees Superpowers Analysis to the first 40 18-30 years olds to complete the Analysis.
